

i believe that all VRS equipment should be open to all VRS providers. According to Americans with Disabilities Act, which is functionally equivalent to what voice telephone users have.

thank you.